++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing and winds easing, remaining mild and cloudy.

This Evening and Tonight:
This evening, any remaining rain will ease and clear to the southeast into the night. This will leave most areas with dry conditions overnight, though staying fairly cloudy with limited clear spells. Winds easing through the night, and remaining mild. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Sunday:
A dry start, before outbreaks of rain return to southern areas through the morning, becoming more widespread later. Lighter winds than Saturday, and on the mild side. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
A wet start for many Monday, but turning dry and bright later. Remaining dry with bright or sunny spells on Tuesday and Wednesday, though windy at times. Mild throughout.
